EUROFIA Resolution on the compliance by the Greek Public Television with their remit as a public service provider

Zurich, Switzerland, May 27, 2006

According to the information that was delivered to us by the Hellenic Actors' Union, the Greek Public Television – financed by fees deducted from utility bills – is falling short of its remit to provide viewers in the country with the diverse and qualitative content, entertainment and information that they are paying for and expect to be delivered in return.

The European group of the International Federation of Actors (FIA), meeting in Zurich on May 26 and 27, 2006, supports the Hellenic Actors Union's claims for a full compliance, by the Greek Public Television, with its remit and calls on it to make all possible efforts to meet with its commitments as a public service broadcaster.

EuroFIA gathers performers' unions in 23 EU countries, in the European Economic Area and in Switzerland and represents hundreds of thousands of professional performers working in film, television, theatre, dance, music, variety and other major fields of the cultural sector.

On behalf of EuroFIA,

Tomas Bolme
President of FIA

Dominick Luquer
General Secretary of FIA
